The Land of the Soul.

There's a beautiful land on the other side;
A beautiful, beautiful land,
The fields are Elysian, the bowers are gay,
The mountains majestically grand;
There are emerald walks through valleys fair,
And music floats on the perfumed air.

A stream ripples through the flowery meads,
A beautiful, beautiful stream;
Rare gems of thought in its depths are sought,
There inspirations teem;
And mortals in the realms below,
May drink of the waters that freely flow.

There are temples of faith in realms above,
There are temples of faith and prayer,
And myriads of blessed angels seek
The great Eternal's care.
There pearls of truth and wisdom wait,
Our entrance at the golden gate.

There's a river to cross, a river to span,
Ere we reach the other side,
And we hour by hour are nearing
The ever surging tide;
Death's upheaving billows unceasingly roll
Between the earth-sphere and the land of the soul.
—[Wide World.

DOMESTIC LIFE.—The banes of domestic life are littleness, falsity, vulgarity, harshness, scolding, vociferation, and incessant issuing of superfluous prohibitions and orders, which are regarded as impertinent interferences with the general liberty and repose, and are provocations of rankling or exploding resentments. The blessed antidotes that sweeten and enrich domestic life are refinement, high aims, great interests, soft voices, quiet and gentle manners, magnanimous tempers, forbearance from all unnecessary commands of dictation, and general allowance of mutual freedom. Love makes obedience lighter than liberty. Man wears a noble allegiance, not as a collar, but as a garland. The Graces are never so lovely as when seen waiting on the Virtues; and when they thus dwell together, they make a heavenly home. No affection, save friendship, has any sure eternity in it. Friendship ought, therefore, always to be cultivated in love itself, as its only sufficient substitute in its absence. A couple joined by love, without friendship, walk on gunpowder, with torches in their hands.

UNDERSTANDS IT.—George H. Pendleton evidently understands the Chinese question. In a recent speech at Clifton Springs, Ohio, he said: But the Chinese will give us cheap labor! Cheap human labor! I despise the word. It signifies a crime and a shame. It signifies squalor, degradation, ignorance, vice. Are not laborers men—our fellow-men? They have bodies to clothe and stomachs to feed, and minds to educate, and spirits to elevate, and old age to provide for. They have homes which they love, and wives whom they cherish, and children whom they hope to make worthy citizens—the honest fathers and virtuous mothers of a succeeding generation. And can you remember these duties and see these aspirations; can you contemplate the patient hopefulness of cheerful and contented, because fairly compensated, industry, and talk of cheap labor? Labor is too cheap now. Labor does not receive its just reward. This country needs skilled laborers, and honest, intelligent, unflagging, zealous industry; it needs that such labor shall not be cheap, but that it shall be most bountifully rewarded.

SIAMESE TWINS DISCOUNTED.—All the stories told of the Siamese Twins hardly equal this of the famous Scotch double man, of whom the following account is given in the Reum Scotiorum Historia: "During the reign of James the Third, of Scotland, and at his court, there lived a man double above the waist, single below that region. The King caused him to be carefully brought up. He rapidly acquired a knowledge of music. The two heads learned several languages; they debated together, and the two upper halves occasionally fought. They lived generally, however, in the greatest harmony. When the lower part of the body was tickled the two individuals felt it together; but when, on the other hand, one of the upper individuals was touched, he alone felt the effect. This monstrous being died at the age of 28 years. One of the bodies died several days before the other."

HOW TO RISE REFRESHED.—Every person who toils daily at any kind of labor requiring great physical or mental exertion should be extremely careful to practice a regular system of ablution at the close of each day's work. Sometimes a person may become so completely exhausted as to render this anything but an inviting performance; yet by its omission a great deal of refreshment which the hours of repose are designed to impart is lost. To be cleanly is a strictly religious duty, and is absolutely essential to sound and refreshing slumber; hence the labor of keeping one's person clean is amply repaid by the elasticity which follows nightly ablutions before retiring. Heed this advice, and the reader will sleep soundly; disregard it, go to bed unwashed, and you will rise in the morning unrefreshed, with feelings of lassitude which the exertions of the day will hardly be able to remove.

THE BEAUTY OF A BLUSH.—Goethe was in company with mother and daughter, when the latter, reproved for something, blushed, and burst into tears. He said: "How beautiful your reproach has made your daughter! The crimson hue and those silvery tears become her much better than any ornament of gold or pearls. Those may be hung on the neck of any woman, but these are never seen disconnected with moral purity. A full blown rose besprinkled with the purest dew is not so beautiful as this child, blushing beneath its parent's displeasure. A blush is the sign which nature holds out to show where chastity and honor dwell."

QUICK WORK.—The annexed is from the Oroville Record of the 9th inst.: "On the 30th of September, John Clark was caught in the act of entering a room in the Chico Hotel, and was dragged out by the heels and sent to Oroville on the 1st of October. On the 5th a special Grand Jury was impannelled, and John was indicted for burglary. He was tried and found guilty on the 6th. On the 7th, he was sentenced to two years hard labor in the State Prison. On the evening of the 8th he reached San Francisco under charge of Sheriff Miller, and to-day is doing the State some service. Good bye, John."

A Quaker Detective.

We were five passengers in all; two ladies on the back seat, a middle-aged gentleman and a Quaker on the middle, and myself on the one in front.

The two ladies might have been mother and daughter, aunt and neice, governess and charge, or might have sustained any other relationship which made it proper for two ladies to travel together unattended.

The middle-aged gentleman was sprightly and talkative. He soon struck up an acquaintance with the ladies, toward whom, in his zeal to do, he rather overdid the agreeable, bowing, and smiling and chattering over his shoulder in a way painfully suggestive, at his time of life, of a "crick" in the neck. He was evidently a gray Lothario.

The Quaker wore the uniform of his sect, and confined his speech, as many a parliamentarian would save his credit by doing, to simple "yeas" and "nays." As for myself, I make it an invariable rule of the road to be merely a looker on and listener.

Toward evening I was aroused from one of those reveries into which a young man without being either a poet or a lover will sometimes fall, by the abrupt query from the talkative gentleman:

"Are you armed, sir?"

"I am not," I answered, astonished at the question, no doubt visibly.

"I am sorry to hear it," he replied; "for before reaching our stopping-place it will be several hours in the night, and we must pass over a portion of the road on which more than one robbery is reported to have been committed."

The ladies turned pale, but the stranger did his best to reassure them.

"Not that I think there is the slightest danger at present, he resumed; "only when one is responsible for the safety of ladies, you know, such a thing as a pistol in reach would materially add to one's confidence.

"Your principles, my friend," addressing the Quaker, "I presume are as much opposed to carrying as to using carnal weapons."

"Yea," was the response.

"Have the villains murdered any of their victims?" the elderly lady nervously inquired.

"Or have they contented themselves with—with plundering them?" added the younger, in a timorous voice.

"Decidedly the latter," the amiable gentleman hastened to give assurance; "and as we are none of us prepared to offer resistance in case of attack, nothing worse than robbery can befall us."

Then, after blaming his thoughtlessness in having unnecessarily introduced a disagreeable subject, the gentleman quite excelled himself in efforts to raise the spirits of the company, and succeeded so well by the time night set in that all had quite forgotten, or only remembered their fears to laugh at them.

Our genial companion fairly talked himself hoarse. Perceiving which, he took from his pocket a package of newly-invented "cough candy," and after passing it first to the ladies, he helped himself to the balance, and tossed the paper out of the window. He was in the midst of high encomiums on the new nostrum, more than half the efficacy of which, he insisted, depended on its being taken by suction, when a shrill whistle was heard, and almost immediately the coach stopped, while two faces, hideously blackened, presented themselves, one at each window.

"Sorry to trouble you," said the man on the right, acknowledging with a bow, two lady-like screams from the back seat; "but 'business is business,' and ours will soon be over if things go smoothly."

"Of course, gentlemen, you will spare, as far as may be consistent with your disagreeable duty, the feelings of those ladies," appealed the polite passenger in his blandest manner.

"Oh, certainly; they shall be first attended to, and shall not be required to leave their places or submit to a search, unless their conduct renders it necessary."

"And now ladies, continued the robber, the barrel of his pistol gleaming in the light of the coach lamp, "be so good as to pass out your purses, watches and such other trinkets as may be accessible without too much trouble."

The ladies came down handsomely and were not further molested.

One by one, the rest of us were compelled to get out, the middle-aged gentleman's turn coming first. He submitted with a winning grace, and was robbed like a very Chesterfield.

My own affair, like the sum I lost, was scarcely worth mentioning. The Quaker's turn came next. He quietly handed over his pocket-book and watch, and when asked if he had any other valuables, said "Nay."

A Quaker's word is good, even among thieves; so, after a hasty "good night," the robber thrust his pistol into his pocket, and with his two companions, one of whom had held the reins of the leaders, was about taking his departure.

"Stop!" exclaimed the Quaker, in a tone more of command than request.

"Stop! what for?" returned the other in evident surprise.

"For at least two good reasons," was the reply, emphasized with a couple of Derringers cocked and presented.

"Help!" shouted the robber.

"Stop!" the Quaker again exclaimed. "And if one of thy sinful companions advances a step to thy relief, the spirit will surely move me to blow thy brains out."

The robber at the opposite window and the one at the leaders' heads, thought it a good time to leave.

"Now get in, friend," said the Quaker, still covering his man, "and take a middle seat; but first deliver up thy pistol."

The other hesitated.

"Thee had better not delay; I feel the spirit beginning to move my right forefinger."

The robber did as he was directed, and the Quaker took his place by his side, giving the new-comer the middle of the seat.

The driver, who was frightened half out of his wits, now set forward at a rapid rate. The lively gentleman soon recovered his vivacity. He was especially facetious on the Quaker's prowess.

"You are a rum Quaker, you are. Why, you don't quake worth a cent."

"I am not a shaking Quaker, if that's what thee means."

"Of the 'Hickory,' or rather of the 'Old Hickory' stripe, I should say," retorted the lively man; but the Quaker relapsing into his monosyllables, the conversation flagged.

Time sped; sooner than we expected the coach stopped where we were to have supper and a change of horses. We had deferred a redistribution of our effects till we should reach this place, as the dim light of the coach lamp would have rendered the process somewhat difficult before.

It was now necessary, however, that it should be attended to at once, as our jovial companion had previously announced his intention of leaving us at this point. He proposed a postponement till after supper, which he offered to go and order.

"Nay," urged the Quaker, with an approach to abruptness, and laying his hand upon the other's arm, "business before pleasure, and for business there is no time like the present."

"Will thee be good enough to search the prisoner?" he said to me, still keeping his hand in a friendly way on the passenger's arm.

I did so, but not one of the stolen articles could be found.

"He must have gotten rid of them in the coach," the gay old gentleman suggested, and immediately offered to go and search.

"Stop!" thundered the Quaker, tightening his grasp.

The man turned pale and struggled to release his arm. In an instant one of the deringers was leveled at his heart.

"Stir a hand or foot and you are a dead man!"

The Quaker must have been awfully excited, so completely to forget both the language and the principles of his persuasion.

Placing the other pistol in my hand, with directions to fire on the first of the two men that made a suspicious movement, he went to work on Lothario, from whose pockets, in less time than it takes to tell it, he produced every item of the missing property, to the utter amazement of the two ladies, who had begun in no measured terms to remonstrate against the shameful treatment the gentleman was receiving.

The Quaker, I scarcely need add, was no Quaker at all, but a shrewd detective, who had been set on the track of a band of desperadoes, of whom our middle-aged friend—who didn't look near so middle-aged when his wig was off—was the chief. The robbery had been adroitly planned. The leader of the gang had taken passage in the coach, and after learning, as he supposed, our defenceless condition, had given the signal to his companions by throwing out the scrap of paper already mentioned. After the unexpected capture of the first robber, it was attempted to save the booty by secretly passing it to the accomplice, still believed to be unsuspected, who counted on being able to make off with it at the next stopping place.

The result was that both for a season "did the State some service."

THE BUTTE COUNTY FAIR.—Prentice Mulford, who has been doing up the Fairs for the Chronicle, became poetic at Chico, and wrote thusly:

Oh, my! just look at them tables!
'Twould make any city man stare
To see so many elegant things
As we had at the Butte County Fair.
There's laces, and apples, and jelly,
And boots, and dresses, and rope;
There's minerals, metals and peaches,
With one or two jars of soft soap;
There's patchwork mingled with silkworms,
And sardines mixed up with hay;
There's pumpkins, hardware and stockings,
And pickles done up in crochet;
There's green fruit, tobacco and collars,
With blankets and cool lemonades;
There's cucumbers, onions and babies,
Besides all the pretty young maids.
Of all the things that ere were seen,
Either ancient, rich or rare,
There's nothing in the world can beat
Our old Butte County Fair.

COMPUTING INTEREST.—The Chicago Journal gives a new rule for computing interest, and says it is so simple and so true that every banker, broker, merchant, or clerk should post it up for reference. By no other mathematical process can the desired information be obtained in so few figures:

Six per cent.—Multiply any given number of dollars by the number of days of interest desired, separate the right hand figure and divide by six; the result is the true interest on such number of days, at six per cent.

Eight per cent.—Multiply any given amount by the number of days upon which it is desired to ascertain the interest, and divide by forty-five, and the result will be the interest of such for the time required, at eight per cent.

Ten per cent.—Multiply the same as above and divide by thirty-six, and the result will show the rate of interest at ten per cent.

A TERRIBLE WARNING.—The Alliance (Ohio) Democrat relates the following: "An incident of death by lightning in the neighborhood of Youngstown, which occurred some two weeks ago, was related to us a few days since. It appears that a couple of young men were out in a harvest field when a heavy thunder storm approached, and they started toward the barn, one of them carrying a pitchfork on his shoulder. As the lightning flashed most vividly, his companion asked him to put the fork down as it was most dangerous to carry it. He replied that 'God Almighty couldn't strike him,' and just as the words were uttered he was struck dead, the stroke mangling him in the most dreadful manner. The fork tines were melted, and his boots were torn from his feet. This may serve as another warning to those who set at defiance the power and authority of Him 'who sendeth and directeth the lightning.'"

SOUND UNDERSTANDING.—There are probably no larger feet in the world than those to which the strong-minded women of the country are attached. While these roaring female lions were at Cincinnati last week, the sizes of the shoes they wore were ascertained by an enterprising reporter. Mrs. Phelps wears fourteens, Miss Susan B. Anthony elevens, Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton eights, and Mrs. Norton sevens. A pair of such feet would answer admirably for the pedestals of a couple of Bunker Hill monuments. The high price of leather in this countay is no longer a mystery. Each one of these women ought to have a tan-yard or two of her own.

Severe Earthquakes in Chile and Peru.

A letter dated Valparaiso, Sept. 2d, says: It seems that this Republic is also coming in for it's share of earthquakes, although nothing like so severe as those we hear of occurring almost daily in the south of Peru. The hill near Maipo was shaken most violently to its base on the 24th ult., communicating its agitation to the surrounding country and hills, and a rumbling subterranean noise lasting some minutes made itself heard. The inhabitants, not used to the like phenomena, became, of course, terribly frightened, and imagined their neighborhood destined to be included in Mr. Falb's predictions.

A correspondent of the Panama Herald, writing from Lima, September 13th, sends the following account of the earthquakes in the Southern Provinces:

It is not too much to say that the news received from the Southern Provinces has caused the utmost consternation. A few hours after the arrival of the steamer on the 6th, an extra edition of the National informed the already sufficiently susceptible people of more strong earthquakes on the days of the 20th, 21st and 24th. On this latest day the shocks are represented as something frightful, knocking down walls and houses, but fortunately inflicting no loss of human life.

The worst movement (of the vertical kind) took place about ten minutes past one. At Iquique and Arica the sea receded with fearful velocity, carrying with it a lot of boats, and returned afterwards six feet beyond its natural level. This was repeated several times, and it may well be imagined that the inhabitants took to their heels without much loss of time, in a state bordering on frenzy. The few people that now live in Arica are under tents, exposed to all the vicissitudes of the weather. Business is totally paralyzed, and the town is represented as being like a city of the dead. All the goods in the temporary Custom-house are being transferred to Tacua, where the earthquakes are equally strong, but where they are at all events protected from being swamped away by a monster wave of the sea. In Iquique and Pisagua a similar uncomfortable state of things prevailed.

At Arequipa, Puno, Cuzco, moquegua, in fact all throughout the south, the month of August has been the usher in of unusually strong earthquakes, and it is not to be wondered at if people are disposed to believe the Falb theory is about to prove true.

Here in Lima and Callao we have not had any severe shocks, but people are nevertheless in a state of great alarm, all owing to the German astronomer's ominous prophecies. Many families are leaving the port and coming to Lima, whilst people in Lima are in their turn emigrating in large number to the open country around. All this interferes a good deal with business, and it will be quite a blessing, even to those not believing in the theory set up by Falb, when all this suspense is over and we have the next three weeks behind us.

The steamer of the 11th not bringing any account of new disturbances, has somewhat helped to allay the general excitement and dread.

STRAWBERRIES GRAFTED ON ROSES.—This is a freak of the Parisian florists, and has proved quite successful, producing a pretty novelty. Roses blossoming and strawberries fruiting on the same stem, gratifies the senses of sight and taste. In the autumn, a few common roses of good kinds on their roots are planted in pots; at the same time, a well-rooted strawberry vine, in good bearing condition, is placed with each rose, and planted just beneath the stem of the rose. In the spring, when the runners push out, two or three of them are tied up to the stem of the rose. It is well known that the runners of the strawberry soon make their own roots, and in due time these runners are cut off, making these cuts as for a scion, and then grafting them into the rose stem without cutting away the runner from the parent plant in the ground. They should be cultivated with great care, to induce the sap upward to the scions, cutting off all blossoms and many leaves from the parent plant. Thus treated, the strawberries will blossom and bear perfect fruit upon the rose tree for some time and present a most attractive appearance.

WHY MUST WE?—The New York Day-Book says: "One of our Democratic exchanges rather likes the idea of the 'Chinese coming,' because, he says, 'we must have cheap labor.' Why must we degrade and impoverish the poor for the sake of enriching the rich? If the Chinese come and labor for half, or a third of what our race can work for, then the latter must starve to death, or live on rice and rats as the Chinese can. When the laboring people of America get hold of the right end of this question they will make a sorehead for any political party which wants the Chinese to come. They are not of our race. They will be another element of discord, and quite as destructive for civilization as the voting nigger."

REMEDY FOR BEDBUGS.—We clip the following from an exchange, but cannot say that the remedy proposed is infallible. Nevertheless it is worth a trial: "If any of your readers need a sure remedy for bedbugs they can have mine and cleanse the house of these troublesome vermin without expense. They have only to wash with salt water, filling the cracks where they frequent with salt, and you may look in vain for them. Salt seems inimical to bedbugs, and they will not trail through it. I think it preferable to all ointments, and the buyers require no certificate as to its genuineness.

A YANKEE wagered a Dutchman that he could swallow him. The Dutchman lay down upon a board, and the Yankee bit his toe severely. The victim screamed with pain and told him to stop. "Why, ye tarnal fool!" cried Jonathan, "ye don't think I'm going to swallow ye hull, do ye?"

"IMAGINASHUN tew much indulged," says Josh Billings, "soon is tortured into reality. This is one way good hoss thieves are made: a man leans over a fence all day, and imagines the hoss belongs to him, and sure enuff, the first dark night the hoss does."

YOLO COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

SATURDAY, : : : : OCTOBER 23, 1869.

THE EASTERN ELECTIONS.

Ohio and Pennsylvania have gone Republican by small majorities. This is a rather different result from that we anticipated, yet it is not to be wondered at, considering the strenuous efforts made by the dominant party and the immense influence exerted by means of the Federal patronage. No exertion has been spared to elect the Republican candidates in those States. The whole army of Internal Revenue officials, Postmasters, Navy Yard and Arsenal employés, Pension Agents and Revenue detectives have been assiduously kept at work, and money, furnished by the Bank and other rings, or obtained by assessments upon office-holders, has been spent like water. The managers of the Republican party were determined to obtain a victory at any cost, and having such immense means at their command they have been successful.

We regret their success. It will have great effect upon the election in New York, upon which the whole weight of Federal influence will now be concentrated; it will help very much the scheme to force through the Fifteenth Amendment, and it will embolden Congress to refuse reforms and continue its plundering, oppressive course. But there is nothing in the results of these elections to cause Democrats to lose heart or to make them despair of a grand national victory in 1872. The Radical party has simply got a little more rope, with which it will be enabled to more effectually hang itself. The great rings will pursue their schemes with more boldness for this temporary success; Congress will surrender itself more completely to their dictation, and the point will be sooner reached (for there surely must be such a point, though we have been a long while coming to it,) when the patience of the people, who have been doggedly voting the Republican ticket ever since the war, will be exhausted, and the tidal wave of reaction against corruption and oppression will sweep the land from one end to the other.

Let us look at the salient features of the prospect, though 1872 is yet a long while off: The old issues and the old bitterness are dying out, though slowly; the South is steadily recovering something of her former prosperity, notwithstanding the hordes of Northern carpet-baggers and other vampires forced upon them by the Administration, and the old war hatreds which have led so many in the North to vote the Republican ticket whether right or wrong, are becoming less and less potent. The South will cast a solid Democratic vote, for it is already evident that the negroes, who were enfranchised for the purpose of holding the South for the Republican party, have gone over, or will soon go over bag and baggage to the other side. Upon the Pacific, the position which the Republican party has taken in regard to the importation and enfranchisement of Chinese will give all the States to the Democracy, and in the "old West" and the East, the oppressive taxation and financial iniquities of the Republican Administration of the country will tell with greater and greater effect against the continuance of that party in power. In the next few years economical questions must assume greater political importance than has attached to them since the beginnig of the Kansas and Nebraska agitation in 1854, and with this must come the success of the Democratic party, which is the party of free trade, common sense, finance, low taxation, and opposition to the great railroad and other monopolies—the party of all others to advocate the claims and insist upon the rights of the poor white man.

Let no Democrat feel disheartened at the result of these Eastern elections. Defeats they are, it is true, in one sense; that is, the Democrats did not quite succeed in obtaining the ascendancy, but they did succeed in reducing the Radical majority in Pennsylvania some 20,000 and in Ohio about 40,000. Yet they are defeats which we cannot help regretting, but they are not defeats which will jeopardize future success, and in fact they increase rather than diminish the certainty of a grand national victory at the next Presidential election.

CORRECTION.—The Monitor takes exception to the reason given by our San Francisco correspondent for the refusal by Archbishop Alemany of Catholic burial to Señor Godoy, late Mexican Consul, and says: "Señor Godoy was not refused Christian burial by Archbishop Alemany because of his being a Mexican 'Liberal' or anything else in politics, but because he failed to make his Paschal Communion, or otherwise comply with his duties as a Catholic. The rule of the Church is general and imperative, and Archbishop Alemany, nor any other clergyman, has not the power to set it aside." The Monitor being the organ of the Catholic Church is good authority, and its objection having escaped the eye of "Z," we therefore make the correction.

REAR ADMIRAL CRAVEN has been notified that he will shortly be relieved from the command of the Navy Yard and appointed Port Admiral of San Francisco—an honorary position giving him the "rank" of all new comers. Commodore John R. Goldsborough of the Asiatic squadron assumes command of the Yard.

OUR SACRAMENTO LETTER will be found very interesting. It is from the pen of a practiced hand, and our readers will be regaled by further jottings from the same reliable source from time to time.

THE JUDICIAL ELECTION---ANOTHER GREAT DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

The result of the Judicial election in this State is most gratifying to the Democracy; the triumph is complete, the victory ours. By this result California has washed its hands of Radicalism, and now all the departments of the State Government—Executive, Legislative and Judicial, are in the hands of the Democracy. So far as we have learned, almost everywhere the local Democratic candidates have been elected, and Crockett and Wallace for the Supreme Bench by an immense majority—probably ten or twelve thousand! Below are the returns from some of the most accessible points, which we glean from the Union and Morning Call:

San Francisco—Supreme Judges—Crockett gets 1836 majority, Wallace about 1700. Dist. Judges—Morrison, Dem., in 4th dist., has 829 majority; McKinstry, Independent, in the 12th dist., 561 maj. Police Judge—Sawyer, Dem., 682 majority.

Sacramento—Supreme Judges—Crockett 1324; Wallace 1316, Sawyer 1262, Pratt 1252. District Judge—Ramage 1678, Robinson, 1058; McKune 972.

Sonoma—Supreme Judges 262 Dem. maj. District Judge, 202 Dem maj.

San José—Wallace 651, Crockett 670, Sawyer 628, Pratt 604. Justices of Peace, 126 to 200 Dem. maj.

Santa Cruz—Sawyer 146 and Pratt 88 majority.

Santa Rosa—Democratic candidates 260 majority. Dist. Judge—Wallace 376, Southard 104.

Alameda—Total from townships, with one to hear from, Crockett and Sawyer 200 to 300 ahead.

Los Angeles—Crockett and Wallace have 100 majority.

Siskiyou—Roseborough 320 maj.; Crockett and Wallace a little less—probably 300 in the county.

Marysville—Sawyer 143 and Pratt 91 majority.

Napa—About 20 majority for Sawyer and Pratt. Wallace, Dem., for Dist. Judge, one majority.

Stockton—Democratic majority in the county estimated at 250.

Butte—Democratic majority for Supreme Judges about 200 in the county.

El Dorado—Democratic maj. in the county 50 to 100.

San Joaquin—250 Dem. majority in the county.

Amador—Over 200 Dem. majority.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO LETTER.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21st, 1869.

AN INFAMOUS SLANDERER.

The Chronicle of Sunday last distinguished itself by another of those infamous articles for which it has become notorious. Last December one of the sons of Dr. Bowie married a daughter of the great grain prince, Friedlander. Both the parties being very wealthy, the marriage was considered quite a social event. The publisher of the Chronicle thought it would be a paying idea to get in some way into the wedding party, and print in his paper the next morning a full account of all that was done and said, who were there and what they wore. He could find no reporter, however, who would consent to disgrace himself and his profession by worming, uninvited, into a private house and making notes of a family gathering. But, not to be daunted, the publisher resolved to go himself. Go he did, but was soon discovered and kicked out as he deserved to be. Since then he has been biding his time for revenge, and on Sunday last proceeded to wreak it by publishing a long sensation article, setting forth that young Bowie had fallen into dissipated habits in Paris, and had neglected and finally beaten his young wife, who had telegraphed her mother to come and bring her home. All this was worked up with the flippant smartness and malignant ridicule which distinguish "sensation" articles of the lowest type.

NOT A WORD OF TRUTH IN IT.

This infamous slander is but a deliberate lie. There is not a word of truth in it from beginning to end. So far from spending his wife's dowry of $300,000 among the courtezans of Paris, young Bowie has drawn for but $3,000 since he went abroad; so far from having beaten her, I am assured by those who know, that there is no more loving couple to be found. The only scintilla of truth in the whole story is that Mrs. Friedlander went to Paris. This she did, but it was not to protect her daughter from her husband, but to be with her at her confinement—Mrs. Bowie having recently given birth to a child. The Chronicle sold a number of extra copies on Sunday, as of course everybody was anxious to see the article; but it will prove a ruinous piece of "enterprise" to them before they are through with it. There is but one sentiment in San Francisco in regard to the affair, and if any one of the injured parties were to take the law into his own hands he would find ample support in public feeling. But the publisher of the Chronicle will probably be punished where he will feel it most—in his pocket. There never was a clearer case of libel, or one in which more exemplary damages should be given, and in the meantime the Chronicle will lose largely in business, as respectable men consider it a disgrace to in any manner support such a sheet.

NEWSPAPER MATTERS.

The Herald was advertised to be sold on Tuesday to satisfy judgments in favor of Harry George and others, who at one time or other have been in its employ. But one or two of the first claimants were paid off and the sale postponed another week. Some show of resumption is still kept up, but the thing is evidently dead. Nugent cannot raise any money in San Francisco, whatever he may do in the country. There is however a fine opening for a live Democratic paper here, and there are some projects on foot to put such a paper in the field, but so far as I can learn they do not seem to have assumed definite shape. The Workingman's Journal, which has been so savage on the Bank of California and everything generally, slipped over last week without an issue. It is reported though that a raise of some kind has been made, and that the next number will be forthcoming on Saturday.

ELECTION DAY.

Despite the efforts of the newspapers the Judicial Election which is taking place here to-day excites little interest, though the showery weather has a tendency to keep the "Cliff House Brigade" at home. The principal contest is between Judge Provines and Judge McKinstry for the Twelfth District Judgship. Both are Democrats—the one having the regular, the other the Independent nomination. The impression here seems to be that McKinstry will win.

MONEY MATTERS.

This is the most important topic after all, for the financial stringency has crippled business of all kinds, and many are those who are waiting for times to improve. Money is getting perceptibly easier, and it is the general opinion that the hard times are nearly over. Taxes are about all in; Frank McCoppin has suggested a way to stave off the outside land assessments until December without compromising the rights of the city, and the Legislature will soon meet, and begin scattering the hoards of the State Treasury. In a little while money will be plenty.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Wheat quotations run from $1 27½ to $1 40 for medium, to $1 50 to $1 55 for choice milling or shipping, and prices are firm at these rates. Coast barley is worth from 80 to 85 cents, with 85 to $1 for Bay feed to choice brewing. Oats run from $1 20 to $1 30. For flour the demand is quite active, prices ranging from $3 50 for fine to $5 50 for Bakers' Extra. The latest New York quotations are $1 65 for wheat, and for flour from $6 50 to $9 50.

ROSS BROWNE IN THE FIELD.

Ross Browne, our late Minister to China, announces a series of lectures upon Chinese affairs. He will show up the Burlingame humbug and tell the truth in relation to Chinese matters. Browne is really a good lecturer, and upon this theme will be unusually interesting. By-the-by, Philosopher Pickett's great address last Wednesday evening was a fizzle. Nobody came to hear it, and the hall people refused to open their doors unless paid their money in advance.

LETTER FROM SACRAMENTO.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 21st, 1869.

EDS. DEMOCRAT:—Responsive to the call of duty, here am I, and as per agreement will send you a few notes, that your numerous readers may know something of what is going on at the capital.

DOINGS OF THE CELESTIALS.

What with Chinese festivals, elections and the like, we are having a stirring week here. The great business of raising and exorcising the Devil is now occupying the attention of ye moon-eyed Celestials, and as usual they are loud if not deep in the observance of the customs of ye olden time. Devils are manufactured to order, in and out of town, and have to undergo a regular process of blowing up, preparatory to "going below." Quite a storm of indignation was raised in consequence of the erection of a shamble on I street, for the worship of Pagan Deities. Several Radically-inclined citizens insisted on the right of the Mongolians to act as they pleased, but others, taking a different view, invoked the aid of the authorities and had the innovators arrested. An attempt was made by a number of Republicans to legalize the erection and use of the obnoxious edifice, by means of a petition praying the Board of Trustees to give the act their sanction, but this was refused.

LAYING A CORNER-STONE.

The ceremony of laying the corner-stone of the building for the use of Knickerbocker Fire Company was performed on Monday. Coins, medals, badges and papers poured in from all sides. The copper vessel containing all these was sealed and placed in a "pocket" in the huge block of granite. The sealing of the casket and laying of the first brick having been duly executed, the company present were invited to the Hall, where a liberal supply of refreshments was provided. President Black, Judge McKune, District Attorney Good and others spoke their little pieces, and all enjoyed themselves hugely.

THE FAKIR OF VISHNU

Is having something of a "run" at the Metropolitan Theater. He gives a varied entertainment, consisting of feats of prestidigitation, vocal music and gift distributions. Several of the tricks are quite novel to many here; one, the growth of a plant from a bare table, always bringing down the house. One of the leading features of the affair is the distribution of gifts. A number of laughable incidents has occurred, one of which came under my own eye. A young jeweler here had escorted a fair damsel to the "show," inwardly cogitating the advisability of seizing this show opportunity to show his love, and thus to find out if he really had a show at all, at all—(little mixed, but sho! you understand). The gifts were distributed, the girl receiving a small package. The young man opened this by request, and was somewhat taken aback at discovering a tasty white veil and an orange-wreath! Recovering he leaned over and whispered: "Won't you wear this for ME, dear Fanny?" Now this was rather non-committal, but "our hero" says the day is fixed.—One ludicrous incident will bear relating. An individual having a perceptible cast of the eye was fortunate enough to obtain a title to a soup ladle. He advanced to take possession, when some malicious individual cried out: "Hello! Ben. Butler at his old tricks! The man dropped back abashed, but the joke caught, and for a mement it seemed as if the very walls would fall.—I believe it is the intention of the Fakir to give you the benefit of a flying visit soon.

A DESERTED WIFE RECLAIMS HER FORSAKER.

Quite a nice little mellow-drama was enacted at one of our hotels this week, to the delight of the gossips. A husband and father has been living here some six months with a frail companion. The deserted wife, getting news of the whereabouts of her lord came to this city last week, and set her wits to work to reclaim the recreant to a sense of duty. By means of friendly representations the husband and his companion were induced to present themselves in the parlor of the "Eagle." Charged to the throat with a burning sense of wrongs endured, the injured wife entered the door and appeared before the astonished couple! Perhaps it was that the fickle Lothario had tired of his victim, but let us rather hope that a picture of his old, happy home arose in his mind; anyway, a look of joyful surprise drowned his apparent embarrassment as he exclaimed: "Maggie!" Oh, human natur! Carried away by the old feeling, Maggie rushed forward and clasped her long lost around the neck and showered him with kisses, mingling reproaches and endearments together in one gushing stream. The victim remained as if petrified for a moment, then, with one tremendous "You hussey!" she bolted the scene. Man and wife are en route for home.

THE ELECTION.

The election passed off yesterday as quietly and orderly as could be expected. Now and then some enthusiast would indulge in a horn, and get blasted in consequence, and one or two excitables were accommodated with quarters in the city hotel. The result, as shown by the returns so far as received, is most gratifying. The total vote of Sacramento is 2,530. Crockett receives the largest vote. Ramage is 320 ahead of Robinson. A private dispatch from Yreka gives Roseburg, Democrat, a decided majority over Garter, Radical candidate for County Judge.

FIGHTS—A MURDER COMMITTED.

Several lively passages have occurred here among the highway gentry. The Western Hotel was the scene of quite a scrimmage. An individual under the influence of liquor was being ejected from the bar-room by the proprietor and the clerk, when friends interfered and a set-to came off. Chairs and fists flew around lively, until the invader hailed off for repairs. On the same evening a more tragic affair happened. "Ronde Jim" and Frank Anderson were bantering each other about a girl, when one taking offence made some insulting remarks. A fight ensued, during which Anderson drew a two-edged dagger and stabbed Jim to the heart, killing him almost instantly. Anderson has given himself up.

THE RAIN

Has come at last and is making up for lost time. Some pretty heavy showers have fallen, but I hope that now the clouds will bid a-dew!

Yours in clover, BILLY DHU.

THE Chronicle, of San Francisco, has been overdoing itself and brought down the indignation of its contemporaries. When will professed journalists remember that their mission is to educate and refine, not to degrade and brutalize by vulgar and indecent catering to the lowest of human passions?

THE King of Bavaria kindly permitted Dr. J. C. Ayer to have a copy taken of Rauch's celebrated colossal statue of Victory, which belongs to the Bavarian crown and stands at the entrance of the Royal Palace at Munich. The Doctor had it cast in bronze, and has presented it to the City of Lowell, where it stands in the Park and symbolizes the triumphs of both freedom and medicine. Her manufactures are the pride of Lowell, and foremost among them Ayer's Medicines make her name gratefully remembered by the unnumbered multitude who are cured by them of afflicting and often dangerous diseases.—Boston Journal.

A FAMILY MEDICINE.—The Pain Killer is a purely vegetable compound; and while it is a most efficient remedy for pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in the most unskillful hands. For Summer Complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has, without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of Cholera, than any other known remedy, or the most skillful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the Pain Killer is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates, a sure cure. We have long known the high character of the Pain Killer, and that it is used with great success and satisfaction in our best families. It is the favorite medicine of our missionaries in heathen lands, where they use it more than all else together for the diseases that abound in those warm climates. It should be kept in every house, in readiness for sudden attacks of sickness.—Chr. Press.

YOLO COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

County Official Paper.

TOWN AND COUNTY MATTERS.

THE ELECTION IN YOLO COUNTY.—The election passed off very quietly in this county, but a light vote being polled. The result is the success of the Democratic ticket by a majority of about 400. Below we give the returns so far as received up to Friday night:

Woodland—Supreme Judges—Crockett (Dem.) 216, Wallace (Dem.) 215, Sawyer (Rep.) 146, Pratt (Rep.) 145. District Judge—Ramage (Dem.) 211, Robinson (Rep.) 91, McKune (Ind.) 60. Justices of the Peace—Peterson (Dem.) 252, Hall (Dem.) 210, Hunter (Ind.) 51.

South Putah—Crockett 37, Wallace 37, Sawyer 12, Pratt 12; Ramage 36, Robinson 2, McKune 10.

Knight's Landing—Crockett 98, Wallace 97, Sawyer 35, Pratt 38; Ramage 96, Robinson 16, McKune 16.

Davisville—Crockett 135, Wallace 130, Sawyer 43, Pratt 43; Ramage 127, Robinson 12, McKune 12.

Washington—Crockett 51, Wallace 52, Sawyer 43, Pratt 46; Ramage 38, Robinson 46, McKune 46.

Cacheville—Crockett 48, Wallace 47, Sawyer 36, Pratt 36; Ramage 47, Robinson 34, McKune 1. Justices—Peterson 42, Hall 13, Hunter 29, Hutton 36, Pettit 5.

Buckeye—Crockett 91, Wallace 90, Sawyer 20, Pratt 20; Ramage 59, Robinson 9, McKune 13.

East Cottonwood—Crockett and Wallace 71 each, Sawyer and Pratt each 29; Ramage 71, Robinson 19, McKune 10.

West Cottonwood — Crockett and Wallace have a majority of 16. No other vote received.

Fairview—Sawyer and Pratt have 4 majority.

West Grafton—Crockett and Wallace, 5 majority.

Fremont—Gives a tie vote.

Merritt—Crockett and Wallace each 14, Sawyer and Pratt each 11, Ramage 12, McKune 13.

North Grafton—A tie vote.

SUICIDE OF E. A. GRAVES.—This gentleman was a printer and was for about two months employed in this office, having left here on the 27th of September for San Fraccisco, possessed of about eighty dollars in coin. It is announced in the San Francisco papers that on Saturday last he was found in a dying condition in Laurel Hill Cemetery, having taken laudanum for the purpose of self-destruction. Papers in his possession stated that "the influence of bad whisky" was the cause of the act. During the entire two months of his sojourn here he was not known to use ardent spirits. Deceased was about forty-five years of age and had been in California about four years; was a single man and never stayed longer than a few months in a place.

DESIRABLE PROPERTY.—Jas. Asberry offers for sale his butchering business, with building, slaughter-house and all the appurtenances. Also several other valuable properties in Woodland, and a ranch a short distance from town. He has found the benefit of advertising in conducting his business, and now avails himself of its advantages in disposing of his property. He has derived benefit from it in several instances already.

PORTER OF THE ASSEMBLY.—Jas. E. Johnson, of this place, a very respectable colored man of Democratic proclivities, is an aspirant for the position of Porter of the Assembly at the next session. As he has once filled the position and gave entire satisfaction, he would doubtless do the same again if he should be favored with the position.

DAMAGE TO HAY AND GRAIN.—The rain has done considerable damage to unhoused wheat and hay in this vicinity, large quantities of which are entirely unprotected. The wheat was not sufficiently penetrated to do very much injury, but we are informed that hay has fared much worse and considerable will be entirely spoiled.

THE MAILS.—For some reason, the mails are verry irregular in their arrangement. We should receive a daily mail from Sacramento and San Francisco. Usually the latter arrives all right, but papers from Sacramento are generally a day behind time. There is bad management somewhere which should be remedied.

LUMBER.—P. C. Robertson has removed his lumber-yard to the lot west of the College, and is prepared to furnish all kinds of lumber, in any desired quantity, for building purposes, etc., on reasonable terms. He always does business on the square.

THE WELCOME RAIN.—After several days of threatening, on Tuesday night it commenced raining and continued, with short intermissions, till Thursday morning. Instead of dust we are now blessed with mud in abundance, but it is rapidly drying up.

RACES.—A trotting-race to harness for $200 a side and a purse of $50, will take place over the Woodland course on Saturday, November 6th between Dickerson's Odd Fellow horse and Fenno's "Ben." Distance—two miles and repeat.

ONLY ONE.—Only one drunken man was observed on our streets on election day, and we are told he was a disgusted Radical, who, finding his party was getting so badly beaten, took that means of keeping his courage up.

NEW GOODS.—Henry Aronson has opened a fine assortment of Fall and Winter dry goods, of which he invites an inspection, satisfied that to examine goods and prices will result in buying a good supply at once.

CHANGE OF TIME.—By reference to the time table of the Cal. P. R. R. it will be seon that a change in the running time of the trains has been made, which makes it much more convenient for the traveling public.

CORRESPONDENCE SOLICITED.—We desire correspondence from all parts of the county. Any items of news will be published if residents in different localities will forward them to the DEMOCRAT office.

WILD GEESE.—Large numbers of wild geese have of late been observed wending their way down the valley, doubtless in anticipation of approaching winter and in search of a warmer climate.

PACIFIC SALOON.—An establishment with the above name has recently been opened in Hall's new building, opposite the College, by H. Zerker, formerly of Mokelumne Hill. See card.

GRAPES FOR BRANDY.—Upwards of 100 tons of grapes have been sent from Woodland the present season to the brandy distillery of Sam. Brannan, at Calistoga.

RETURNED.—John A. Price, and E. R. Lowe and family returned from the East on Tuesday last, whither they have been visiting their friends.

TWO TOO MANY.—McKune received only two Democratic votes in this precinct. That is just as it should be, only it's just two too many.

An exchange says: "The surprising curative efficacy of Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, in a great variety of chronic diseases, especially those which prove obstinate, and incurable by ordinary treatment, cannot be explained. Nature, aided by art, has here provided a rare combination of medicinal properties, wisely adapted to the cure of diseases common to all mankind."

Business men, worn by care and sedentary habits, often suffer from constipation of the bowels, until the evil consequences of such a condition are realized in extreme debility, nervousness and prostration of the vital energies of the system; and it may be safely asserted that a majority of the female sex are little better than invalids, from the same cause; but by using Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, this natural aperient and tonic brings back the vigor and bouyancy of health.

The effect of Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, even when taken for its cathartic properties, are very different from those of any other medicine prepared specially for that purpose. There is no nausea or disturbance of the stomach, and instead of causing any sense of languor, or debility, it seems rather to invigorate the whole system, and excite the keenest appetite.

BEWARE!!

Among my customers there are some who have acted in such bad faith that I feel forced to call attention to them. A. G. & V. A. Whaley, W. R. Blevins, E. D. Beckett, A. Armsfield and L. Hickok, have, under the responsibilities of respectable residents and citizens of Woodland, run bills at my Butcher Shop, and afterwards, without one word of explanation or excuse, left without paying their bills.

These "shirks" and "confidence men" are the first among numerous others that my attention has been called to. The others will be attended to shortly; as I work for my means of supplying these fellows with "grub" and do not intend to let them enjoy it free, unless they do as other respectable men do—pay as they go. AUTUMN.

There is a glory on the earth to-day,
There is a spirit in the changing trees,
There is a soft, low murmur in my heart,
And on the breeze.

Sweet autumn sheds a gentle influence now,
The world is clad in beauty and in light;
The sunshine shimmers softly through the trees,
And all is bright.

Some spirit has made love to every flower
That breathes its love out on the passing breeze;
Some magic hand has thrown a witching garb
Upon the trees.

For all the blossoms blush—they seem rare gems
From the bright land of dreams. In earthward flight,
Some seraph's wing has swept the trees and left
Gleams of light.

Above us bends the silent, cloudless sky,
And o'er its depth a lone bird wings its flight;
Seen for one moment—then, like gilded hope,
It fades from sight.

The spirit of the wind has struck his harp,
But altered is the music of the lay;
The notes are wailing, and the burden is
"Passing away."

We love to linger out. The deep, blue sky
Seems nearer now than when the summer's here;
The rustling leaves a melting murmur cast
Upon the ear.

Yes, there is music in the fallen leaves;

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

For all the Purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterous drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity. They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills readily cure:—For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Langour and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action. For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it. For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required. For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear. For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge. For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy. As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach. An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. DR. J. C. The Science of Health!

Every Man his own Physician.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS

— AND —

Holloway's Ointment.

Disorders of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

The stomach is the great center which influences the health or disease of the system—abused or debilitated by excess—indigestion, offensive breath and physical prostration are the natural consequences. Allied to the brain, it is the source of headaches, mental depression, nervous complaints and unrefreshing sleep. The Liver becomes affected and generates bilious disorders, pains in the side, etc. The bowels sympathize by costiveness, diarrhœa and Dysentery. The principal action of these Pills is on the stomach and the liver, lungs, bowels and kidneys participate in their recuperative and regenerative operation.

Erysipelas and Salt Rheum

Are two of the most common and virulent disorders prevalent on this continent. To these the Ointment is especially antagonistic; its modus operandi is first to eradicate the venom and then complete the cure.

Bad Legs, Old Sores, and Ulcers.

Cases of many years' standing, that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment, have invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful unguent.

Eruptions of the Skin,

Arising from a bad state of the blood, or chronic diseases, are eradicated and a clear and transparent surface regained by the restorative action of this Ointment. It surpasses many of the cosmetics and other toilet appliances in its power to dispel rashes and other disfigurements of the face.

Female Complaints,

Whether in the young or old, married or single at the dawn of Womanhood, or the turn of life, these tonic medicines display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible in the health of the patient. Being a purely vegetable preparation. They are a safe and reliable remedy for all classes of Females in every condition of health and station of life.

Piles and Fistula.

Every form and feature of these prevalent and stuborn diseases is eradicated locally and entirely by the use of this emolient; warm fomentations should precede its application. Its healing qualities will be found to be thorough and invariable.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases: Bunions, burns, chapped hands, chilblains, fistula, gout, lumbago, mercurial eruptions, piles, rheumatism, ringworm, salt-rheum, scalds, skin diseases, swelled glands, sore legs, sore breasts, sore heads, sore throats, sores of all kinds, sprains, stiff joints, tetter, ulcers, venereal sores and wounds of all kinds.

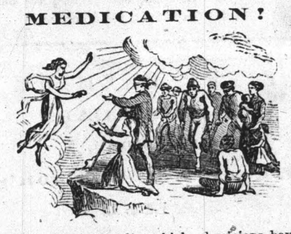

CAUTION.—See that the words "Holloway, New York and London," appear as a watermark on every leaf of the book of directions which enfolds each box or pot. No others are genuine. A handsome reward given for information leading to the detection of counterfeiters of the medicines and venders of the deceptive articles, knowing them to be such. Sold at the manufactory, No. 80 Maiden Lane, and by druggists and medicine dealers throughout the world. A great saving by taking the large sizes. Full instructions with every box or pot.

THE LATEST DISCOVERY

— IN —

MEDICATION!

The great difficulty which physicians have been laboring for centuries to overcome, has at length been obviated. A Vegetable Cathartic and alterative more efficient than any mineral preparation of the same class, and as agreeable to the taste as ordinary candy, is now offered to the sick in the farm of a Lozenge.

Dr. Erasmus Winslow's Liver and Stomach Lozenge is the most important medicinal novelty that modern chemistry has produced. It contains two botanical extracts, perfectly harmless in themselves, but embodying all the remedial properties of mercury, and destined in this pleasant form to supercede and banish from general use the nauseous pills and potions of which that dangerous excitant is the main ingredient. More than one thousand experiments were made by the inventor of this peerless remedy before it was brought to its present state of perfection. The Lozenge is harmless in its operation, and although the medicinal taste of its curative components has been extinguished by chemical art, their virtues remain as active and potent as ever.

In Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Constipation, sick or nervous Headache, Piles, Dropsy, and the irregularities to which the feebler sex are subject, the Lozenges will be found infinitely more effective than any of the horrible and disgusting compounds usually administered in such cases. As an anti-bilious specific and general aperient, they have no equal either among advertised preparations or the prescriptions of the regular pharmacopœia.

☞ It is guaranteed that no one who has once tried Dr. Erasmus Winslow's Liver and Stomach Lozenge, will ever again take a purgative powder, or draught, or pill.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and destroyed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

Hair Dressing,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Prepared by DR. J. AYER & CO., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Massachusetts. Price, $1.

☞ Sold by all Druggists and dealers in Medicines everywhere. Crane & Bingham, San Francisco, R. H. McDonald & Co., Sacramento, wholesale agents. au14-1y

APPROVED PATTERNS AND FINISH!

I employ no "foreman," for 30 years' experience in the trade—10 years in the Eastern States, 20 years on the Pacific coast, (including 9 years superintendence of the "Pioneer Carriage Shop," Sacramento,) justifies me in assuming that position. Delegating to none the supervision of my work, I am enabled to Guarantee Satisfaction!

My LARGE and SPACIOUS SHOPS enable me to store large quantities of material, and my

SEASONING FACILITIES,

(the only perfect seasoning apparatus on the coast) enable me to defy competition in quality of seasoned work. For verification of above, one has only to examine my facilities in this line, and compare them with those in other shops. I do not pursue the course adopted by many; on the contrary, I season stock before working, and do not put up green stock in wheels, leaving them to season afterwards. I have and keep on hand a large stock of

OAK and HICKORY SPOKES,

of all sizes and the finest material the market affords. Also a large variety of Elm and Locust Hubs.

Having given the Oak Hub a fair trial, I have become convinced that they are unfit for first-class work. Parties who may favor me with their patronage may be assured that

No green oak hubs will be found in my work!
